

Town Residents Approved to use Hofstra University Pool For Holidays

New Hyde Park, NY – The Town of North Hempstead announced this week that to accommodate for the holiday closing of Echo Park, plans have been made for residents to use Hofstra University's Swim Center from Jan. 1-16.

Residents can show proof of residency or a Hempstead temporary pool pass to qualify for the $5 charge to use the Hofstra pool.

The Hofstra University pool will be open weekdays from 6:15am-8pm; and weekends from Noon-5:45pm.

North Hempstead's Tully Park pool is presently undergoing reconstruction.

For more information call the Town of North Hempstead's Call Center by dialing 311 or call Tara Coppola at (516) 463-5082.
