

TOWN OF NORTH HEMPSTEAD SUPERVISOR
JUDI BOSWORTH, THE TOWN BOARD, AND THE
OFFICE OF SUSTAINABILITY ARE PROUD TO PRESENT

THE 6TH ANNUAL RECYCLED ARTWORK CONTEST!

Supervisor Judi Bosworth with 2013 Winners

Supervisor Judi Bosworth and The North Hempstead Town Board are proud to announce the 6TH Annual 2014 Recycled Artwork Contest! The winners will be on display for one month at 'Yes We Can Community Center' in Westbury with a Reception on December 8th, followed by an exhibit in February 2015 at the New York State Capitol Building in Albany, thanks to the efforts of NYS Assemblywoman Michelle Schimel!

Eligibility

To be eligible for consideration, the submission must be made by a student or group of students enrolled in one or more schools that participate in the Town of North Hempstead School Recycling Partnership Program. Only one submission per student or group will be permitted. Submissions must be original works. For a list of eligible schools, please visit www.northhempsteadny.gov.

Format

Entries must use recycled content - either recycled materials or materials that can be recycled. Metals, paper, rubber, plastic or cloth (NO GLASS). Each piece must be labeled with the students name, grade, school, materials used, a brief description and title.

Upon submission, all entries (unless prior arrangements are made) become the property of The Town of North Hempstead.

Review Criteria

Entries will be judged based on relevance to the theme, originality, recycled materials used, appeal, presentation and persuasiveness. Entries will be judged by the North Hempstead Arts Advisory Committee. The committee retains the absolute right to select the winning artwork based on the reviewed criteria. All entries are subject to the North Hempstead Arts Advisory Committee's decision. The determination of the committee is final and shall not be reviewed.

Entry and Release Forms

The entry form, release and certification consent by a parent or guardian of each individual student must accompany each submission. Failure to submit an entry form and/or general release will bar consideration.
