§2-11. Performance

- A. A building permit shall be effective to authorize the commencing of work in accordance with the application, plans and specifications on which it is based for a period of three months after the date of its issuance. If work is not commenced within such period of three months, the project shall be deemed abandoned. For good cause, the Building Commissioner may allow reasonable extensions at his discretion. Any project which is not completed within two years from the date of issuance of a building permit shall be deemed abandoned unless good reason for delay is shown.
