

Carolina rose (Rosa carolina): This small shrub has pink flowers with 5 petals and a pleasant fragrance. It also has smooth, dark green foliage and thorny stems. It provides food for birds, butterflies, native bees and other pollinating insects in the form of nectar, pollen and rose hips. Blooms April through June.

