

Great blue lobelia (Lobelia siphilitica): This lovely plant has showy blue blooms that are produced into the fall. It is a good shade plant and a heavy re-seeder that needs medium to moist soils. The blooms are used by long tongued bees, hummingbirds and some butterflies for nectar. Blooms July through September.

