

Black chokeberry (Aronia melanocarpa): This deciduous shrub offers four season interest with its spring/summer white flowers, purple/black berries in fall, brilliant red leaves in late autumn and red bark in winter. Its berries provide food for birds and foliage provides cover for birds and other wildlife. Blooms in May.

