

Culver's root (Veronicastrum virginianum): Large, erect plant with lance-shaped leaves and a triangular shaped cluster of tube-like white flowers. Bees (sweat bees, carpenter bees, bumble bees) and butterflies utilize nectar and pollen. Blooms June through August.

