

Mountain mint (Pycnanthemum muticum): A beautiful mountain mint with aromatic leaves and white flowers that is loved by a variety of pollinators especially native bees. It also helps to attract predatory insects that prey upon pest insects. It can get aggressive so site accordingly. Blooms July through September.

